

I am opposed to greater concentration of media control. Please do lift the restrictions on media cross-ownership. As a resident of Seattle, WA, I greatly value the independent ownership of The Seattle Times. I think it's very important to have the owners of such a powerful communications media as community citizens, not part of some large conglomerate. Thank you.